

HUSTLING TEAM IS DOBSON'S PLAN

Coach at Richmond College Will Keep His Men on Go All the Time.

Real practice at Richmond College will begin Monday afternoon, when at least three elevens will be on the field receiving instructions from Coach Dobson. Candidates for honors who have already arrived have been given preliminary work and will be able to help the coach in telling the rest of the squad the plan to be followed. Frank Dobson is no idler, and the men who make their football knowledge from him and expect to make good must keep hustling. Dobson, a baseball player and a football player of no mean ability, hasn't a lazy bone in his body. He is built for speed, and speed will be the one thing he expects of his team. If Frank Dobson doesn't turn out a winner this year it will be because of one of two things: either the necessary material will not be at hand or else he will have to fire all of the applicants for places because they are unwilling to stand the pace he sets for them. In either event, it will be a most woeful commentary upon the student body at Richmond College.

Say what you will about the Spiders, they have never been quitters. The men who got suits to try for places on the eleven have always been willing to do what the coach said to do. Sometimes the material has not been all that the friends of the school might have hoped, and sometimes the coach has not measured up to the hoped-for standard, but the men have tried. This year, if advance information goes for anything, there will be a world of material, and Frank Dobson, regardless of future results, is just about the best coach in these parts.

Manager Purdie is busy fixing up his schedule. It is practically intact, though there may be one change in the championship series between Richmond College, Hampden-Sidney, Randolph-Macon, and William and Mary. The schedule was printed in The Times-Dispatch early in June. Never has a more hustling manager led the team of young fellows. The chance that he contemplates will bring dollars to the athletic association, and since dollars are needed to maintain a football team, he should prove a valuable man. J. A. George, who for two seasons has been a tower of strength to the Spiders at center, has been elected captain, and will help Coach Dobson.

The Schedule.
September 25—R. L. Blues, at Richmond.
October 4—Maryland Aggies, at College Park, Md.
October 11—Gallaudet, at Richmond.
October 18—Wake Forest, at Wake Forest, N. C.
October 25—Randolph-Macon (exhibition), at Richmond.
November 1—Hampden-Sidney (championship), at Richmond.
November 8—William and Mary (exhibition), at Newport News.
November 15—Randolph-Macon (championship), at Richmond.
November 22—William and Mary, at Williamsburg.

STEARNS MAKES LOWEST SCORE

Philadelphia, September 11.—The lowest score made in the qualifying round in the intercollegiate golf tournament for the individual championship to-day was brought in by J. N. Stearns, III, of Princeton, who covered the eighteen-hole course in eighty. As there were six players who made eighty or better, the chance, who brought in cards under these figures, it was necessary for the sextette to play off an elimination round to bring the numbers down to the required sixteen for match play.

Sweeney Succeeds Word

At a meeting of the letter men of the Richmond Light Infantry Blues' football team, held last night, Maurice J. Sweeney, a member of the team for three years, was elected captain to succeed Billy Word, who has resigned to attend the University of Virginia. Sweeney is an experienced football man and his work at tackle for the militiamen has stamped him as an admirable leader. While Word will be missed, the men feel that in Sweeney they have a worthy successor to the speedy half back.

ANVIL DEFEATS DUDIE ARCHDALE

Match Race Lost by Mare, When Pop Geers Drives Stallion to Victory.

Syracuse, N. Y., September 11.—The grand circuit meeting came to a close this afternoon with a program of six races, the features being the match race between Dudie Archdale and Anvil, and the free-for-all race. The match race was won by Anvil, driven by "Pop" Geers, the little stallion traveling his stabel mate in both heats and then out-trotting her in the stretch drives. It was the first race Dudie Archdale ever lost when driven by her owner, Frank G. Jones.

Earl Jr., and Braden Direct had a great battle in the free-for-all race, but the former was just a trifle the best each time. The 2:12 trot furnished a big surprise after Alfonso won the first heat, the Connecticut mare, Natta Prime, going to the front and winning off by herself. Len McDonald teamed Margot Hal to victory in the 2:07 pace, giving her a new record of 2:05 1-2 in the second heat.

DOG SHOW TO BE FEATURE OF FAIR
Premium lists and entry blanks are now ready at the Virginia State Fair office, Mutual Building, for the greatest dog show ever held in this state under the sanction of the American Kennel Club.
Entries for this show will close on September 23, and it is expected that many of the champion dogs of America will be in attendance. There are also special classes for local dogs, and many Richmond canines are expected to be on exhibition.
George F. Foley, of Lansdowne, Pa., will be the superintendent of the show, and Dr. E. Lester Jones, Montpelier, Va., and Dr. John E. Demund, of New York, will be the judges.
In addition to the cash prizes given by the Virginia State Fair Association, there are many special prizes offered in the various classes by the merchants of Richmond and elsewhere.

ALBRIGHT TAKES TURNER'S MEASURE

Wins Middleweight Championship From Titleholder in Grueling Match Last Night.

By putting Joe Turner's shoulders to the mat two falls out of three at Broad Street Park last night, Con Albright, the "Western Wildcat," won the Police Gazette belt, representing the world's middleweight championship, a $100 side bet and took all of the gate receipts.

The bout was one of the best witnessed here this season. Throughout the three downs, both men, by clever work, got themselves out of several close places. The toe hold was barred and the referee would hardly let Turner get a hold on Albright's foot, let alone get near the toes. Several times in the first go, Turner had Albright close to a down, but Albright was wily enough to squirm to the edge of the mat, which meant a break in Turner's hold.

Turner weighed in at ringside at 154 1-2 pounds, and Albright weighed 157 1-2. It was evident that Albright was the more powerful of the two. His strength in the neck and about the shoulders stood him in good stead in several downs. Albright gained the first fall with a double-arm lock in twenty-three minutes.

The second fall went to Turner after fifty-four 1-2 minutes of the hardest kind of mat work. Turner gained a hammer lock and half Nelson, from which Albright could not release himself.

In the go for the final down, Turner was pushed off the platform, and in going off ran a large splinter into his right knee. When he returned to the mat he was caught unawares and went down after five minutes of work, Albright getting another double-arm lock.

Scientific wrestling was put to the test by greater strength, and to those who have followed Turner's work, it was plain that he was not as strong in his leg and neck work as in matches heretofore. Albright was given a round of applause when he gained the final fall. Both men had many friends in the large crowd, and each was given applause when he performed some difficult feat.

"Young" Turner, Joe's brother, issued a challenge to any man in the world weighing under 175 pounds. Young Turner, who was the preliminary, gaining two falls out of three from Bastine.

BOILER PUT OUT OF COMMISSION
Narrow Escape of Fireroom Crew on Battleship Nebraska.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Norfolk, Va., September 11.—While engaged in target practice off the Virginia Capes with other ships of the Atlantic Fleet, the battleship Nebraska this morning met with an accident that put one of her boilers out of commission.

The bigship was under way when the head of No. 3 boiler blew out. No one was seriously injured, but the fire-room crew had narrow escapes. There were no men near No. 3 boiler at the time of the explosion, they being engaged in firing the other boilers, and were not in range of the escaping steam from the exploding boiler.

Had any of the fire-room crew been in front of the boiler when the head blew out, naval men say they would probably have been killed outright or horribly scalded. Only meager reports of the accident were received here, but a detailed account is said to have been filed with the department at Washington. The Nebraska has been ordered to Norfolk for repairs.

The Atlantic Fleet began target practice on the Southern Drill Grounds to-day, and is reported to have smashed half a dozen targets towed by tugs at a distance of from three to nine miles.

Representative Wilder Dies.
Washington, September 11.—Representative William Henry Wilder, of the Third Massachusetts District, died at his apartment here to-day after a lingering illness. Mr. Wilder had suffered from a complication of diseases for nearly two years.

Bryan to Speak at Chase City.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Chase City, Va., September 11.—Secretary of State William J. Bryan has accepted an invitation to deliver an address at Chase City during the Mechanicsburg Agricultural Fair. He will arrive from Richmond by special train on October 2, and during the afternoon will deliver the address.

LOCATE BIG TIM IN SANATORIUM

Former Tammany Politician With Dr. Kennedy, but Nurse Denies It.

Brewsters, N. Y., September 11.—"Big Tim" Sullivan, who has been missing from the home of his brother, in Williamsburg, since August 31, was located this evening at the sanatorium of Dr. Joseph Collins, on the Mount Brook Farm, near here.

Sullivan is directly under the care of Dr. Foster Kennedy, of New York, and it is by his orders that he is in a sanatorium.

"Big Tim" was taken to this picturesque section of the Hill Country in an automobile, in which were two men and two women, besides the chauffeur. He looked much thinner than when in his prime, and it was noticed that he had a short, stubby beard. The utmost secrecy regarding him is being observed, and those in charge have been instructed to give no information about him.

To-day the head nurse at the sanatorium absolutely denied that he was a patient there.

MURDER IN SECOND DEGREE.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Sussex Court House, Va., September 11.—The jury in the case of Joseph Cook, charged with the murder of Joseph Meade, both colored, who has been on trial in Sussex Circuit Court since last Tuesday afternoon, returned a verdict to-day, finding the prisoner guilty of murder in the second degree and fixing his punishment at five years in the penitentiary.

Judge J. F. West to-day sentenced Emanuel Jackson to be electrocuted on October 24, 1913. Jackson was convicted several months ago for killing Andrew J. Dunn, on this place in December, 1912. Upon the request of his counsel, who desired to apply to the Court of Appeals for a writ of error, the execution of the judgment of the court was suspended until November 21, 1913.

IN THE WAKE OF THE GAME
BY GUS MALBERT.

Walter Smallwood will be sent to the Builders to-day. That was the announcement made last night by Manager Griffin.

Manager Mathews has not decided who will represent him.

A rumor to the effect that Charlie Piez was to play for the Mammals, N. J., suffering from appendicitis, was dead was run to cover last night, when the chief of police of that city telegraphed The Times-Dispatch that Piez was home and well.

Ducky Ebert's home run caused some excitement yesterday. It scored two.

WEST IN RACE FOR SUPREME COURT

Sussex Jurist Announces Candidacy for Seat to Be Vacated by Buchanan.

Sussex Courthouse, Va., September 11.—Judge J. F. West, of Waverly, this county, who is presiding over the present term of Sussex Circuit Court, admitted to-day that at the solicitation of friends he will be a candidate for the seat on the bench of the Supreme Court of Appeals to be made vacant by the retirement of Judge Buchanan.

For some time it has been reported that Judge West had the question under consideration, but he definitely settled the matter to-day by announcing his candidacy.

Already there are three or four other well-known Virginia lawyers who aspire for the vacancy on the highest court in the Commonwealth, and Judge West's entrance into the contest will add to an already interesting situation.

"WOLF OF WALL STREET" IS ARRESTED AND BAILED

Washington, September 11.—David Lamar, the "Wolf of Wall Street," was arrested here to-day at the order of the Department of Justice and held under $3,000 bail until September 17.

Hearing to decide whether he can be extradited to New York for trial under the indictment pending there against him, charging him with the impersonation of Representative A. Mitchell Palmer and other Congressmen.

The Department of Justice moved at the request of the New York district attorney, Special Agent Samson, of the department, to the matter before the district attorney, Deputy Marshals Grant and Elkton were directed to make the arrest.

Lamar was taken before United States Commissioner Anson T. Taylor. Lamar was represented by Henry E. Davis, who demanded bail for Lamar pending decision.

Commissioner Taylor fixed the bail at $3,000, which was furnished through a friend of Mr. Davis.

ELMORE HEINS IS IN THE CIGAR BUSINESS.
You have to roll cigars. By taking part in the last home game at the park yesterday, Elmore Heins, of the Portsmouth, Elmore thinks that he sizably increased his roll.

Secretary Bradley will have Kess-nich's Band out at the park to-morrow to play for the crowd. He wants to make getaway day a success. It is an annual thing, this band on closing day, and he wants to play a requiem and once in every five years they play joyous tunes. It will be the requiem to-morrow.

Ty Cobb, through his performance yesterday, now leads Joe Jackson. Washington helped the Georgian by sending Engle and Gallia against the Naps. Jackson made one hit in three tries, while Cobb made three hits in six times at bat.

They are figuring on second place in Washington now. The Senators have won four straight from Cleveland, and only two games separate the two teams. Walter Johnson will pitch to-day, which should mean five straight, and but one game's difference. Since the Climbers are home and Cleveland must finish on foreign ground, Clarke Griffith has a mighty good show of finishing as runner-up.

Cincinnati by beating Boston again increased the chances of the Reds for finishing in fifth place.

NEW JERSEY IS WINNER OF FIRST SEAGIRT EVENT

Seagirt, N. J., September 11.—The opening day of the twenty-third annual Seagirt international and interstate shooting tournament ended with a victory for the team representing the Second Infantry, National Guard, of New Jersey, in the Columbia trophy match. The winners scored 829 out of a possible 900. The riflemen not competing in the Columbia match practiced to-day for the inter-state mental, Gould individual rapid fire, company team matches and other events scheduled for to-morrow.

RACING STARTS AT LEXINGTON

Lexington, Ky., September 11.—Fall racing was ushered in at the old association track to-day, with small, but classy fields competing in nearly every event. A heavy rainfall made the track sloppy. Iron Mask, making his first Western start, romped home an easy winner in the inaugural dash. Reabok accounted for the feature handily, with Princess Calloway, the machines paying 24 to 1. Just Y was the tip in the race, and just failed to get up in the final strides.

Landes, who has figured quite prominently in football and baseball for two seasons past, has gained the consent of his father to return to college, and this afternoon worked out with the first squad. He now tips the scales at 177, and will be given a faithful trial

FOOTBALL PRACTICE BEGINS IN EARNEST

Three Teams at Charlottesville Report to Coaches. Death of Geoffrey F. Walker Brings Gloom to University—Disappointment Over Announcement That H. Carter Will Not Attend—Word Reports.

Charlottesville, Va., September 11.—It looked like real football at Virginia to-day with three elevens running through signals. The squads were in charge of Head Coach Warren, Assistant Coach Varner, who reached the university to-day, and Todd, last year's captain. Quarterback Gooch reported for the first time. He looks to be in good condition and weighs 162. He has been getting in shape at Varner's home at Warrenton. Of the new men, "Billy" Word, of the Richmond Blues, was the most prominent. He looks like a Stauton type—in fact, handles himself very much like the Californian who starred in three branches of sport—baseball, football and track.

News has been received at the University of Virginia of the death, in Dublin, Ireland, of Geoffrey F. Walker, of Trenton, N. J., one of the most promising members of last year's football squad. Young Walker, who was a member of the Princeton University, when he was stricken with typhoid fever. The end came after a lingering illness. The news of the young man's death came as quite a shock to his friends here. Nothing was known of his illness at the university, and he was expected to join the football squad next week.

Walker came to Virginia from Lawrenceville School along with Captain Carter, who is the leader of this year's eleven. For two seasons past he has been with his parents, Chancellor and Mrs. Walker, of Princeton University, when he was stricken with typhoid fever. The end came after a lingering illness. The news of the young man's death came as quite a shock to his friends here. Nothing was known of his illness at the university, and he was expected to join the football squad next week.

There is considerable disappointment in football circles over the loss of a prominent prep school football star, who had been slated to enter Virginia. The player in question is H. Carter, a cousin of Captain A. L. Carter. He had led his Lawrenceville friends in the university to believe that he would come to Virginia after graduating from the New Jersey institution, and had been picked to fill the place made vacant by the departure of Joe Wood, the sturdy center for the past three years. According to the wishes of his father, who desired him to take the agricultural course at Cornell, he has gone to the Ithaca college. Carter's home is in Texas. Those who have seen him in action declare that he is the equal to Gloth, Virginia's center for two or more seasons.

Landes, who has figured quite prominently in football and baseball for two seasons past, has gained the consent of his father to return to college, and this afternoon worked out with the first squad. He now tips the scales at 177, and will be given a faithful trial

Races at Winchester Prove Most Exciting Ever Held in That City.

Winchester, Va., September 11.—In the free-for-all trotting or pacing race at the forty-fourth annual exhibition of the Shenandoah Valley Agricultural Society this afternoon, Alice M. of the Monocacy Valley Farm, of Frederick, Md., not only won all three heats, but also the track record twice, lowering it from 2:15 to 2:13 and 2:14.

The races were the most exciting ever held here, and were witnessed by upwards of 12,000 people from this and neighboring States. Roman and rescue races, Cossack riding, tandem and musical drills by troops of a squadron of the Fifteenth United States Cavalry from Winchester Instruction Camp were thrilling features.
